

Come Join Us... 3rd Annual Walk Against Media Violence

Objective of this Walk:

- To create awareness among parents and children about the adverse health impact of media violence targeted at children.
- To protest violent content in TV, Video Games, Movies and other Multimedia products targeted at children.

Venue: Austin City Hall - Plaza
Date: Saturday, Oct. 31, 2009
Halloween day
Time: 10:00 am – 12:00 pm
Distance: 2.5 K
Guest Speaker: APD Chief of Police Art Acevedo

To Register for the 2009 3rd Annual Walk:

Call: (512) 828-6709 | (281) 381-0744
Email: info@pamv.org
Online: <http://www.pamv.org>

FREE and open to all. No donations or contributions.
VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED!

FREE T-Shirts and Certificates (while supplies last)

Did you know?

By the age of 12, children would have viewed more than 8,000 killings and 100,000 other violent acts on television alone...

American children between the ages of 2-18 spend an average of 6 hours and 32 minutes each day using some form of media...